

LEADING WITH EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE

Identify the impact past leaders have had on your style of leadership and identify how your leadership traits can be used to motivate your team

COURSE OVERVIEW

Each leader has his or her own style of leadership. It doesn't always have to be about the big inspirational or transformational moments. It's in the lessons we have learnt along our journey.

This course has been designed to help you identify which traits of past leaders have influenced your personal style of leadership and define your leadership principles which will be used to lead and motivate your team.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Identify the impact that past leaders have had on your style of leadership
- Familiarise yourself with common leadership styles
- Learn the difference between Transactional and Transformational leadership
- Take the time to reflect on your approach to leadership
- Apply the art of delegation to empower your team members
- Understand how to apply leadership traits to motivate your team
- Identify factors that positively influence employees and those that adversely affect morale